MEETING Wednesday 12th JUNE

Guest Speaker: Tina Jones – Co-Founder and Director “Youth in Transition”

Club Speaker: Gill Raynor

From the President:

I am writing this brief note from the beachfront at Otaki Beach. Otaki is a small, but very vibrant community, about an hour north of Wellington. Last week I was in the Bay of Islands and if all goes well, I will eventually be back in Gulf Harbour for our next meeting on Wednesday 12 June. There are some exciting things happening in the club this year! Watch this newsletter for details in the upcoming months.

One of the bright spots I had recently was being present for a short karakia that was given at a meeting at the local hospice. It impressed me so much that I want to share it with you. It reflects the peace that can be sought when you enter someone's house, workplace or, in our case, a Rebus meeting.

"When you walk upon our floor,
Please leave your burdens at the door.
A house should be a place that's blessed,
Where souls find peace and hearts can rest."

We are aware that Covid 19 is again on the increase. Please feel free to wear a mask to club meetings to safeguard your health if you wish. The choice is yours. Stay well.

Ken

PS. Competition on Page 3. Don't miss out!

Please remember: small money for Entry and Sales Table, and turn off your phone during meetings.

LAST MEETING:

Guest Speaker, Michael Sanders, President of Centrestage Orewa, provided an entertaining and informative May address. Centrestage is owned by a Trust, and the theatre seats 205. This year it is putting on 6 productions and has 4 full-time staff. It costs $14,000 per month just to keep the doors open. He pointed to the costs of the rites to produce shows, mentioning that Les Misérables had cost $18,000. It is always a gamble that ticket sales will exceed operational overheads. Michael did a millinery course in London in 2019 to assist his costume design ability. Theatre has been his passion for 50 years.

Club Speaker was Alister Fookes, whose life since the age of nine, has been involved in farming, and farming products, until he and Gill recently retired to the Hibiscus Coast.
